

EDUCATION INTERN Summer 2023

The Wortham Center for the Performing Arts, a 501(c)3 nonprofit, is an active, 500-seat venue in the heart of downtown Asheville, N.C. Serving 55,000 people each season, the Wortham Center presents a series of critically acclaimed touring artists in dance, theatre and music, an education series for students, teachers and families, and is the home venue for more than 40 local organizations that rent the theatre each season.

SUMMER EDUCATION INTERN

Wortham Center for the Performing Arts seeks a small team of local interns ages 16+ who are excited to gain hands-on theatre experience. Summer Education Interns will work with Wortham Educators for four weeks of creative and performing arts day camps running M-F, July 10 – August 4, for artists ages 6 – 13.

A Summer Education Internship allows aspiring professionals the opportunity to...

- Work alongside professional teaching artists.
- Develop leadership, organizational, and interpersonal skills.
- Expand professional network and build relationships and mentorships for the future.
- Hone confidence in the classroom, assisting as young artists gain skills in theatre creation and performance.

Summer Education Interns are expected to...

- Actively assist teaching artists in camps for students ages 6 – 13.
- Assist with daily student drop off and pick up.
- Oversee snack, lunch, and bathroom breaks.
- Support rehearsals and performances by leading breakout rehearsals and working behind-the-scenes.
- Maintain clean and organized classroom and performance spaces.
- Attend a mandatory training session before camps begin, date and time TBD.

All staff members will be required to show proof of full vaccination. All staff members over 18 will be subject to a background and criminal check.

Summer Education Interns will receive a weekly stipend of between $100 - $300 a week, depending on experience and the length of each camp.
