

The Wortham Center for Performing Arts, located in downtown Asheville, North Carolina, is seeking part time Café staff in our McAninch Café to support our 2022-2023 season of events in the Diana Wortham Theatre, Tina McGuire Theatre, and Henry LaBrun Studio.

The Wortham Center for the Performing Arts presents and supports local, regional and national live performances in an array of disciplines including dance, music, theatre, comedy, circus arts and special vents. The McAninch Café serves Wortham Center audiences an assortment alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages including beer, wine, soft drinks and locally made prepackaged snack options.

Primary Café Staff Duties:

- The Café staff is responsible for assisting Wortham Center patrons in a friendly and efficient manner in a fast-paced environment.
- Handling patron orders, totaling orders in our processing system, cash handling, making change and processing credit card payments.
- Responsible for all Café opening and closing procedures, including cleaning, restocking of Café inventory and closing sales reports, as well as the set up and breakdown of our mobile bar and concessions.
- The Café staff works together as a team in the overall success of Café sales for all performances and events at the Wortham Center.
- The Café staff works as a team with the overall Front of House staff at the Wortham Center.

The McAninch Café is open during the majority of our live performance events. Café staff must have weekend day and evening availability, with weekday shifts subject to the performance schedule. Café staff must be 18 years old, have a valid ID and be able to complete the North Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission Responsible Alcohol Seller/Server Training. Part time pay rate is $12/hr plus tips.

Application: Submit a cover letter, current resume and references to suzie@worthamarts.org. Please use “Cafe Staff Job Application” as the subject line. No calls or drop-ins.
