

Summer Camp Teaching Assistant

The Wortham Center for the Performing Arts seeks an early-career artist and teacher who is excited to gain hands-on experience in theatre education for youth. The Summer Teaching Assistant will work with the Wortham Education Team for four weeks of full and half-day camps running Monday-Friday, June 24 – July 26, for kids ages 6-11.

Serving as a Teaching Assistant allows early-career professionals the opportunity to...

- Work alongside professional teaching artists.
- Develop leadership, organizational, and interpersonal skills.
- Expand professional network and build relationships and mentorships for the future.
- Hone classroom and management skills.
- Learn flexibility while working with a diverse group of students.
- Gain confidence in developing and leading arts curriculum.

Summer Teaching Assistants are expected to...

- Actively assist teaching artists in camps for students ages 6 – 11.
- Help facilitate daily student drop off and pick up.
- Oversee snack, lunch, and bathroom breaks.
- Support rehearsals and performances by leading breakout rehearsals and working behind the scenes.
- Lead activities and exercises in acting, movement, improv, and more.
- Maintain clean and organized classroom and performance spaces.
- Communicate clearly and respectfully to staff, students, and families.
- Attend a mandatory training session before camps begin, date and time TBD.

All staff members will be required to show proof of full vaccination. All staff members over 18 will be subject to a background and criminal check. Housing is not provided.

Compensation begins at $325 a week for half-day camps (9 am-1 pm) and $450 a week for full-day camps (9 am-3 pm).

To apply, please submit a resume and relevant materials to the Director of Education and Engagement Anna Kimmell at anna@worthamarts.org.
